Timeline Notes

- If you are planning to recertify BEFORE your certification expires, and you do not attain recertification this year, your previous certification will NOT be impacted and you will still appear as a certified community
- If the majority of your actions do not have documentation, only mark enough actions completed to meet the minimum requirements for bronze certification. Additional actions can be added throughout the cycle.

Municipal governments have many opportunities to incorporate social equity issues into local government practice and programs. This Diversity on Boards and Commissions action provides an assessment process that allows communities to begin to consider the degree of inclusivity and representation of the membership of their municipal boards and commissions. Communities should strive for board and commission membership that reflects the community profile in terms of race, religion, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, age, political beliefs, physical ability, national origin, cultural identification, national identification, and family structure. This is not to say that people from one group will not do a good job representing people from another. However, diverse board membership encourages the exchange of different perspectives, facilitates innovative problem-solving, and supports social equity in communities.

Who should lead and be involved in this action?

The Mayor, with support from the leadership of the governing body, municipal staff, Green Team, board and commission members, community and faith based organizations, social service organizations, and community residents, could participate in an effort to evaluate the diversity on municipal boards and commissions.

Final Thoughts & Take Aways

- Add users to your account to assist with uploading documentation to speed up the certification process.
- Certification Cycle: It is doable! We had plenty of towns that were certified for the first time last year by the October deadline, and additional towns that continued to work on their application throughout the review and resubmittal periods up to the final deadline.

2017 New Jersey Sustainability Summit

June 21, 2017, 8:30am – 4:00pm

The College of New Jersey

REGISTER

The 2017 New Jersey Sustainability Summit will explore how coordinated local action can achieve an increased collective impact. As federal and state budgets decline, there is renewed energy at the local level to make progress. But no community can be an island.

Sustainable Jersey brings together a unique mix of public and private, state and local partners to support communities in achieving remarkable progress. The 2017 Sustainability Summit will explore how we can all work together to build local capacity for change.

You will participate in thought provoking conversations that focus on engaging government, community, schools, business and academia in sustainable action. The event attracts over 300 diverse participants from across New Jersey. At concurrent sustainability sessions, you will have the opportunity to learn, listen and discuss issues ranging from water resources, energy, waste, civic engagement and local economies to school and municipal green teams. The event offers an exciting venue for networking, engagement and collaboration.

Who Should Attend?

Sustainable Jersey and Sustainable Jersey for Schools green team and Task Force members, academics, elected officials, state and local agency representatives, businesspeople, non-profit organizations and the interested public. For information visit www.sustainablejersey.com
