

Capitalize on the Benefits of Walkable and Bike Friendly Communities: Strategies and Funding Sources

April 2, 2014: Rutgers, New Brunswick

April 3, 2014: Township of Montclair Fire Headquarters, Montclair

April 4, 2014: Camden County MUA, Camden

Agenda

REGISTRATION AND NETWORKING

9:30 am

PRESENTATIONS

Welcome &amp; Overview	Renee Haider, Associate Director, Sustainable Jersey	10:00 am
The Business Case for Walkable and Bike-Friendly Communities	Jerry Fried, Lead Ambassador, NJ Bicycle & Pedestrian Resource Center at Rutgers University	10:10 am
Sustainable Jersey Actions Promoting Policy and Environmental Change	Bill Feldman, The RBA Group (April 2 and April 4) Elizabeth Ward, The RBA Group (April 3)	10:25 am
Regional Case Studies:		10:50 am
West Windsor Township's Bicycle and Pedestrian Plan (April 2)	Jerry Foster, West Windsor Bike and Pedestrian Alliance President and Trustee (April 2)
Morristown Bike Plan (April 3)	Stefan Armington, Morristown Council Member (April 3)
Camden County and Camden City Complete Streets Initiatives (April 4)	Chris Waldron, Sustainability Coordinator, Camden and Matthew Norris, Tri-State Transportation Campaign (April 4)
Current Funding Opportunities	Leigh Ann Von Hagen, AICP/PP, Senior Research Specialist, NJ Safe Routes to School Resource Center at Rutgers University (April 2 and 3) Sean Meehan, Project Manager, Safe Routes to School Resource Center at Rutgers University (April 4)	11:10 am

TECHNICAL SUPPORT OPPORTUNITIES

12:00 pm

Representatives from Sustainable Jersey, Rutgers University, SRTS, DOT and the Transportation Management Associations will be available to answer your questions.

NJ APA CM Credits approved – EVENT #e.26643; #e26665; #e2666

Co-Sponsored by:

